Chairman's Message

Dear Shareholder Friends,

The last financial year has once again been extremely challenging year for Indian as well as Global economy. Growth slowdown, persistent inflation and the twin deficit risks i.e. fiscal deficit and current account deficit came to the fore during 2012-13 and weakened the Indian economy endangering the reversal of its declining growth path. The Global economic activity also remains subdued amidst signs of diverging growth paths across major economies.

The weak economy and consumer sentiment continues to dampen the demand for automobiles sales in India. The ever rising interest rates, inflation coupled with decelerating economy have resulted in the lowest growth in the last decade for the Indian Automobile Industry, which registered a cumulative production growth of meager 1.20% during FY 2012-13, with passenger vehicle and two wheelers registering a growth of 2.78% and 1.90% respectively, while commercial vehicle and three wheelers de-grew by 10.48% and 4.50% respectively.

In the above backdrop, your Company registered a growth of 8.63%, which is much above the industry growth. The profit for the year grew by 6.02% to Rs. 135.85 Million as compared to Rs. 128.14 Million during the previous year.

Friends, as is evident from the above figures, the Indian Automobile Industry is going through a turbulent patch. Lower projection of economic growth and continuing high inflation has dented customer sentiments and sales may decline further in coming months. However, the bold policy measures being taken by the Government are aimed at putting the economy in top gear and expected to revive the investor sentiment in the economy.

Despite the above difficult environment, we believe that the automotive industry has huge growth potential and is bound to grow on the back of supportive government policies, positive business environment and availability of reasonably priced talented workforce. The Government of India has formulated Automotive Mission Plan 2006-16, National Electric Mobility Mission Plan 2020 and National Automotive Board among others for achieving the sustained growth of the automotive industry. Therefore, it is the need of the hour for auto component companies to continue to make investments to create additional capacities for taking advantage of their position, once the growth is back on track. Your Company has continued its efforts in this direction by making investments towards setting up new plant, up-gradation of its Research and Development facilities and modernization of its existing manufacturing facilities. We are confident that our large capital expenditure will enable us to take full advantage of our market leadership position and achieve our growth ambitions.

I am glad to inform that the plant in Bidadi, Bangalore has commenced manufacturing operations and supplies of Auto Lighting and other components to Toyota Kirloskar Motors India Private Limited for their Etios and Liva vehicles in August, 2012. Further, the supplies of two wheeler lighting from this plant to Honda Motorcycle & Scooter India Private Limited (HMSI) are expected to commence in the first quarter of FY 2013-14.

On CSR front, your company continued its efforts in serving the underprivileged of the society – with a focus on the girl child. The Company's efforts towards this direction are evident in places where it works, with specific focus on manufacturing locations, implemented by CSR team by continuously supporting the 3 schools adopted by it in NCR region by way of providing financial support in terms of fees of children on one side and contributing towards infrastructure and other facilities for students in the school on the other.

In the end, I would like to thank all the employees of Lumax for their encouragement, dedication and support, especially in these challenging times and to the shareholders for being associated with us, who have maintained their confidence in the company. We believe that we are well positioned to benefit from a future pick-up in market conditions, unlocking further value for our shareholders.

BUSINESS PERFORMANCE

The Indian auto and auto components industry is currently facing its most formidable challenge – that of slowing demand; and that too across the board. After a frenzied period of 2009-10 and 2010-11 when all automotive spots - domestic OEMs, exports and replacement market - shone bright, the year 2011-12 marked the commencement of a slowdown phase as volumes in the domestic Passenger Vehicle and Medium & Heavy Commercial Vehicle segments began to stutter. If the year 2011-12 was bad, the year 2012-13 has turned out to be worse as other segments too including the domestic Two-Wheeler segment as also exports to overseas OEMs and tier-1 players have come into the grips of the slowdown. While the revenue growth of diversified auto component manufacturers had been steady till Q1 2012-13, the across the board weakness in demand witnessed during the last two quarters has tended to neutralize this structural advantage otherwise enjoyed by such players.<sup>1</sup>

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION & ANALYSIS REPORT*a) INDUSTRY STRUCTURE, DEVELOPMENTS AND OUTLOOK*ECONOMIC ENVIRONMENT*GLOBAL ECONOMY

Despite improved global financial conditions and reduced short-term risks, the world economy continues to expand at a subdued pace. After a marked down-turn over the past two years, global economic activity is expected to slowly gain momentum in the second half of 2013 and 2014 on the back of accommodative monetary policies in developed and developing economies. Growth of world gross product is projected at 2.3% in 2013, the same pace as in 2012, before gradually strengthening to 3.1% in 2014.<sup>3</sup>

INDIAN ECONOMY

Following the slowdown induced by the global financial crisis in 2008-09, the Indian economy responded strongly to fiscal and monetary stimulus and achieved a growth rate of 8.6% and 9.3% respectively in 2009-10 and 2010-11.

However, with the economy exhibiting inflationary tendencies, the Reserve Bank of India started raising policy rates in March 2010. High rates as well as policy constraints adversely impacted investment, and in the subsequent two years viz. 2011-12 and 2012-13, the growth rate slowed to 6.2% and 5.0% respectively.

The slowdown, especially in 2012-13, has been across the board, with no sector of the economy unaffected. The moderation in growth is primarily attributable to weakness in industry, which registered a growth rate of only 3.1%. Growth in agriculture has also been weak to 1.9%, following lower-than-normal rainfall. The growth rate of the services sector also declined to 6.6%.

India's situation is difficult but steps have been taken to bring the macro economy back into balance and growth on track. It is important to recognize that a lot needs to be done and the slowdown is a wake-up call for increasing the pace of actions and reforms. With the global economy also likely to recover somewhat in 2013, these measures should help in improving the Indian economy's outlook for 2013-14.<sup>4</sup>

INDIA OUTLOOK FY 2013-14

Over two decades, India has implemented wide-ranging reforms that opened up the economy, dismantled the old licensing system and introduced competition into a number of sectors that had previously been dominated by public monopolies. This decisive action has helped the Indian economy to narrow the gap in living standards with advanced economies. Supported by further reforms, convergence accelerated in the 2000s as growth averaged over 8% a year, one of the strongest performances in the world.

The Indian economy now ranks third largest in the world, measured in Purchase Power Parity terms, and world-leading Indian enterprises have emerged across a number of sectors, not least in information technology and business services.<sup>5</sup>

The Indian economy is now highly integrated with the global economy - in fact, more integrated than some of the major advanced economies are. Therefore, the uncertain global macroeconomic situation directly impacts the Indian economy through various channels. As global growth has slowed down significantly, it has obviously impacted India's growth.<sup>6</sup>

Uncertain global economic prospects do not augur well for India's exports and will limit external stimulus to its economy. India's growth prospects in 2013-14 will, therefore, be largely shaped by domestic factors.

An improvement in private consumption growth would be critical to revive GDP growth in 2013-14. Higher agriculture income - driven by normal monsoons, pre-election welfare spending by the government and lower interest rates will be key drivers of private consumption in 2013-14.<sup>7</sup> Further, the government has also taken a number of steps to revive investment and growth, which will help the overall economy to grow in the range of 6.1 to 6.7%.<sup>8</sup>

AUTO AND AUTO COMPONENT INDUSTRY OUTLOOK

The Indian automotive industry has emerged as a 'sunrise sector' in the Indian economy. India is emerging as one of the world's fastest growing passenger car markets and second largest two wheeler manufacturer. It is also home for the largest motor cycle manufacturer and fifth largest commercial vehicle manufacturer.

India is emerging as an export hub for sports utility vehicles (SUVs). The global automobile majors are looking to leverage India's cost-competitive manufacturing practices and are assessing opportunities to export SUVs to Europe, South Africa and Southeast Asia. India can emerge as a supply hub to feed the world demand for SUVs.

India also has the largest base to export compact cars to Europe. Moreover, hybrid and electronic vehicles are new developments on the automobile canvas and India is one of the key markets for them. Global and Indian manufacturers are focussing their efforts to develop innovative products, technologies and supply chains.

The automotive plants of global automakers in India rank among the top across the world in terms of their productivity and quality. Top auto multinational companies (MNCs) like Hyundai, Toyota and Suzuki rank their Indian production facilities right on top of their global pecking order.

The Indian automobiles industry witnessed a moderation in demand in 2012-13, after the double-digit growth in sales recorded in the preceding three years. Weak macroeconomic sentiment coupled with subdued consumer confidence pulled down sales. Overall Indian Automobile Industry has shown 2.61% growth in FY 2012-13 compared to previous FY 2011-12. Production and Domestic sales registered a growth of 1.20% and 2.61% respectively; however the exports de-grew by 1.34% due to negative global environment and fluctuation.<sup>9</sup>

Automobile Industry Trend

In view of the current macro environment, both domestically and globally, Indian automobile industry's prospects in the near term are cautiously optimistic. As a result, achieving high growth rates is likely to be a major concern for the industry in 2013-14.

While the long term fundamentals of the Indian economy remain robust, the sluggish global environment has impacted sentiments in the domestic market in the short term. But it is expected to be only a temporary phenomenon, and future prospects look better than this year. Growth in sales would be driven by the expected improvement in macro conditions on the domestic front, moderation in interest rates and revival in consumer confidence. Consequently, the deferred purchases witnessed in FY 2012-13 are expected to get converted into sales next year. The auto industry is likely to gain considerably from the various initiatives on infrastructure development, rural focus and the improved road infrastructure.<sup>10</sup>

INDIAN PASSENGER VEHICLE INDUSTRY: SLOW BUT STEADY RECOVERY IN VOLUMES EXPECTED

Two straight years of slowdown, the Indian PV industry is still trying to stave off the challenge, now apparently more intense, posed by protracted demand recovery as it enters fiscal 2013-14. In the last two years, the pendulum of growth for the domestic PV industry has turned to the other extreme – from 25%+ growth rates chronicled in 2009-10 and 2010-11, the domestic PV industry volume growth geared down to 4.7% in 2011-12 and 2.78% in 2012-13. While supply challenges arising from labour issues and natural calamities did shave-off potential output to an extent, the primary frictional cause for moderation in growth was a dull demand environment. This in turn was the outcome of the extended bout of high inflation, rising fuel prices and firm interest rates, resulting in deferment of buyers' purchase decision. While the festive months of October-November 2012 did bring about a sequential improvement in volume run-rate, the trend has failed to hold steam thereafter. The above trend shows a weak PV demand environment in 2013-14 as well.<sup>11</sup>

In the year ahead, increased marketing efforts by companies and launch of new models/variants would be directed at pulling customers into the showroom. However, the demand momentum is expected to gain momentum after the initial couple of quarters.<sup>12</sup>

AUTO COMPONENT INDUSTRY

The Indian auto component industry is one of the few sectors that have a distinct global competitive advantage in terms of cost and quality. It is also one among the fastest growing industries in India. The Indian auto component industry gradually transformed from a local supplier to a global auto parts supplier to major global automobile companies. India's cost competitiveness in raw material and labour and its established manufacturing base is a compelling attraction for global Original Equipment Manufacturers (OEMs) to outsource components from India.

INDUSTRY STRUCTURE

The Indian auto component industry grew robustly at 27.1% CAGR over FY05-FY12 and reached Rs. 2,063 billion in FY12. The remarkable growth can be attributed to government initiatives and incentives, additional subsidies, formation of various clusters, gradual increase in the per capita income as well as disposable income giving a boost to the demand of automobile industry and in turn auto component industry. Moreover, innovative marketing strategies and increase in competition due to entry of various foreign players have further helped to drive the improvement in end products. Economic liberalisation, coupled with technological, cost and manpower advantages, has made India one of the prime business destinations for many global automotive players. Indian auto components manufacturers can be broadly divided into organised and unorganized players. The organised sector accounts for three fourth of total production. The forte of the organised sector is high, value-added precision engineering products, a large unorganised sector characterises the lower value-added segments.<sup>13</sup>

Exports Scenario

Exports constitute 17% of the Indian Auto Components Industry's total turnover. Exports of auto components from India grew from Rs. 159.60 bn in FY 2007-08 to Rs. 334.8 bn by FY 2011-12. Exports declined during FY 2009-10 as compared to FY 2008-09 primarily due to slow recovery in developed countries. However, they once again bounced back in FY2010-11, registering sharp growth more than 45%. During FY 2011-12, global OEMs/ tier-I manufacturers accounted for 80% share in the Indian Auto Component Industry's exports and global aftermarkets accounted for the rest. Europe accounted for nearly 32.9% of India's exports and continues to be one of the major export destinations, followed by Asia.

Auto Components : Composition of export destinations(%)

Source : ACMA

Going forward, the Indian Auto Components Industry is well poised to achieve strong growth owing to rising domestic demand in the OEM market and expanding replacement market. The export market for auto components is likely to see strong traction once the global market stabilises and economic uncertainty diminishes. According to the Auto Components Manufacturers Association (ACMA), the Indian Auto Components Industry is likely to grow to US$ 110 bn by 2020 with the domestic market share of ~US$ 80 bn. The share of the Auto Components Industry in the country's GDP is likely to increase to 3.60% by 2020, up from 2.40% in FY 2011-12. Given good long term demand prospects in the domestic market and with India emerging as a favoured low-cost sourcing destination, auto component manufacturers are likely to invest in increasing production capacities and technological capabilities. Further, companies would continue to diversify their product portfolio to de-risk their businesses. However, competition is expected to increase and prices of raw material are likely to follow an upward trend. This is expected to exert pressure on the Industry's profit margins. In such a scenario, cost control programmes would assume greater significance for the industry players, both big and small.<sup>14</sup>

b) OPPORTUNITIES & THREATS

Rising level of indigenisation will drive auto component growth.

Indian auto component manufacturers offer advantages like low-cost and adequate production capacity with world class technology. Domestic auto component manufacturers are increasingly complying with the internationally accepted quality standards like six sigma, ISO, etc., which has caught the attention of global OEMs. Global OEMs with presence in India are increasing level of localisation in products offered them in the Indian markets.

Trade gap to narrow in next five years

In 2011-12, imports stood at Rs. 514 billion as compared to exports of Rs. 334 billion, however, it is expected that the trade gap would narrow going ahead due to continuously rising rate of growth in exports and expected decline in growth rate of imports due to increase in levels of indigenisation. In 2011 and 2012, exports have grown by 55% and 41% respectively compared to imports which have witnessed a growth of 33% in both 2011 and 2012.

<sup>14</sup> Dun & Bradstreet Auto Component Industry Overview

Strong vehicle population to augment replacement market demand

The replacement market, where price plays a critical role as compared to quality, is dominated by the highly fragmented unorganized sector. Smaller component manufacturers, counterfeits and cheap imports cater to this price-sensitive replacement market segment. Large organized players are able to garner relatively small pie of this segment. Replacement demand is dispersed across the length and breadth of the country, while the players in the organized segment are concentrated in selected clusters, which have proximity to the OEMs. Going ahead replacement market is expected to witness high growth on the back of huge vehicle population.<sup>15</sup>

Emergence of two-vehicle families

With rising disposable income levels and changing life styles, especially in the key urban centres in India, the trend of two-vehicle families has been increasing and purchases are being made by persons who already own vehicles. This has led to high demand of automobiles. Also, it is observed that consumers have a tendency to upgrade their vehicles during replacement leading to a shift to higher categories.

Issues and Challenges

The auto components industry is in a robust growth phase. However, the industry faces certain challenges to growth that include:

Fuel Technology

Technology is significant and needed to ignite the growth of auto industry. The challenge of alternative fuel technology ensures a brighter vision of the auto industry in the country. The increasing environmental pollution has become a concern for manufacturers and all associated with the Industry. All of them are struggling hard to come up with a holistic and integrated approach to reduce carbon dioxide emission. The Government of India has formulated National Electric Mobility Mission Plan 2020 (NEMMP) for achieving significant penetration of efficient and environmental friendly electric vehicle (including hybrids) technologies (xEVs) in India by 2020, which will help to achieve the National Mission for Electric Mobility (NMEM) objectives.

Correlation with the economy

A slowdown in the economy is a serious concern for the automobile segment as the sales are hugely correlated with the economic activity in the country and purchasing capacity of the customers. For example, the recent economic slowdown severely affected the sales of auto OEM's, which has grown by merely 2.61% in FY 2012-13 as against double digit growth during last 3 years.

<sup>15</sup> CARE report on Indian Auto Component Industry

Increase in input material prices

Increase in cost of key raw materials (especially metals) has been a concern. The Automotive Industry has tackled rising raw material prices both by passing part of the costs through price hikes and also by optimizing their selling & advertising costs.

Access to new technologies

In addition to matching competitor's new products and upgraded machinery, technology is also critical, especially with stricter emission norms going forward. The requirement of updated technologies has driven domestic players into acquisition or collaborations or JVs with global majors. Moreover, at a time when a substantial portion of Indian customers is looking to upgrade to higher segments, be it passenger cars or two wheelers, companies with latest technologies and latest models are bound to attract more attention.

Investments in Research and Development

Investments in R&D are critical for retaining and enhancing the competitiveness of the Indian automobile and auto components sector. This competitiveness depends on the capacity as well as the speed of players in the industry to innovate and upgrade.

Cost competitiveness

As both the Automobile and the Auto Components Sectors are very sensitive to costs, there are several underlying drivers of cost competitiveness which are vital to the performance of the Industry domestically as well as when compared with other competing countries.

Notes to financial Statements for the year ended March 31, 2013

1. Corporate Information

Lumax Industries Limited ('the Company') is a leading manufacturer and supplier of auto components, mainly automotive lighting systems for four wheeler and two wheeler applications. The Company has technical as well as financial collaboration with Stanley Electric Co. Ltd., Japan. Its shares are listed on two exchanges in India.

2. Basis of preparation

The financial statements of the Company have been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in India (Indian GAAP). The financial statements have been prepared to comply in all material respects in accordance with the notified Accounting Standards issued under Companies (Accounting Standards) Rules, 2006 (as amended) and the relevant provisions of the Companies Act, 1956. The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention on an accrual basis except in case of assets for which revaluation is carried out.

The accounting policies have been consistently applied by the Company and are consistent with those applied in the previous year

2.1 Summary of significant accounting policies

a. Use of estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with Indian GAAP requires the management to make judgments, estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of revenues, expenses, assets and liabilities and the disclosure of contingent liabilities, at the end of the reporting period. Although these estimates are based on the management's best knowledge of current events and actions, uncertainty about these assumptions and estimates could result in the outcomes requiring a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets or liabilities in future periods.

b. Tangible Fixed Assets

Fixed assets, are stated at cost (or re-valued amounts, as the case may be), net of accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment losses, if any. The cost comprises purchase price, borrowing costs if capitalization criteria are met and directly attributable cost of bringing the asset to its working condition for the intended use. Any trade discounts and rebates are deducted in arriving at the purchase price.

The Company has revalued some of the Land, Building and Plant & Machinery existing on different dates. These Land, Building and Plant & Machinery are measured at fair value less accumulated depreciation and impairment losses, if any, recognised after the date of the revaluation. In case of revaluation of fixed assets, any revaluation surplus is credited to the revaluation reserve, except to the extent that it reverses a revaluation decrease of the same asset previously recognized in the statement of profit and loss, in which case the increase is recognized in the statement of profit and loss. A revaluation deficit is recognized in the statement of profit and loss, except to the extent that it offsets an existing surplus on the same asset recognized in the asset revaluation reserve.

Subsequent expenditure related to an item of fixed asset is added to its book value only if it increases the future benefits from the existing asset beyond its previously assessed standard of performance. All other expenses on existing fixed assets, including day-to-day repair and maintenance expenditure and cost of replacing parts, are charged to the statement of profit and loss for the period during which such expenses are incurred.

Gains or losses arising from the derecognition of fixed assets are measured as the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset and are recognized in the statement of profit and loss when the asset is derecognized.

c. Depreciation on Tangible fixed assets

Depreciation on fixed assets is provided on Straight Line basis as per the rates computed based on estimated useful life of the assets which are equal to the corresponding rates prescribed in Schedule XIV to the Companies Act, 1956.

Leasehold land is amortized over the period of lease ranging from 90 years to 99 years.

Assets individually costing less than or equal to Rs. 5,000 are fully depreciated in the year of purchase.

d. Intangible Assets

Intangible assets acquired separately are measured on initial recognition at cost. Following initial recognition, intangible assets are carried at cost less accumulated amortization and accumulated impairment losses, if any. Internally generated intangible assets, excluding capitalized development costs, are not capitalized and expenditure is reflected in the statement of profit and loss in the year in which the expenditure is incurred.

Intangibles assets are amortized using straight-line method over their estimated useful lives as follows:

Intangible Assets	Estimated Useful Life (Years)
Computer Software	Over the estimated economic useful lives ranging from 3.5 to 4 years
Technical Know-how	Over the period of Technical Assistance Agreement i.e. 8 years

Gains or losses arising from derecognition of an intangible asset are measured as the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset and are recognized in the statement of profit and loss when the asset is derecognized.

e. Research & development costs

Research costs are expensed as incurred. Development expenditure incurred on an individual project is recognized as an intangible asset.

f. Leases

Where the Company is the lessee

Finance leases, which effectively transfer to the Company substantially all the risks and benefits incidental to ownership of the leased item, are capitalized at the lower of the fair value of leased property and present value of the minimum lease payments at the inception of the lease term and disclosed as leased assets.

Lease payments are apportioned between the finance charges and reduction of the lease liability so as to achieve a constant rate of interest on the remaining balance of the liability. Finance charges are recognized as finance costs in the statement of profit and loss. Lease management fees, legal charges and other initial direct costs are capitalised.

A leased asset is depreciated on a straight-line basis over the useful life of the asset or the useful life envisaged in Schedule XIV to the Companies Act, 1956, whichever is lower. However, if there is no reasonable certainty that the Company will obtain the ownership by the end of the lease term, the capitalized asset is depreciated on a straight-line basis over the shorter of the estimated useful life of the asset, the lease term or the useful life envisaged in Schedule XIV to the Companies Act, 1956.

Leases, where the lessor effectively retains substantially all the risks and benefits of ownership of the leased item are classified as operating leases. Operating lease payments are recognized as an expense in the Profit and Loss Account on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

Where the Company is the lessor

Leases in which the Company transfers substantially all the risks and benefits of ownership of the asset are classified as finance leases. Assets given under finance lease are recognized as a receivable at an amount equal to the net investment in the lease. After initial recognition, the Company apportions lease rentals between the principal repayment and interest income so as to achieve a constant periodic rate of return on the net investment outstanding in respect of the finance lease. The interest income is recognized in the statement of profit and loss. Initial direct costs such as legal costs, brokerage costs, etc. are recognized immediately in the statement of profit and loss.

Leases in which the Company does not transfer substantially all the risks and benefits of ownership of the asset are classified as operating leases. Assets subject to operating leases are included in fixed assets. Lease income on an operating lease is recognized in the statement of profit and loss on a straight-line basis over the lease term. Costs, including depreciation, are recognized as an expense in the statement of profit and loss. Initial direct costs such as legal costs, brokerage costs, etc. are recognized immediately in the statement of profit and loss.

g. Borrowing costs

Borrowing cost includes interest, amortization of ancillary costs incurred in connection with the arrangement of borrowings and exchange differences arising from foreign currency borrowings to the extent they are regarded as an adjustment to the interest cost.

Borrowing costs directly attributable to the acquisition, construction or production of an asset that necessarily takes a substantial period of time to get ready for its intended use or sale are capitalized as part of the cost of the respective asset. All other borrowing costs are expensed in the period they occur.

h. Impairment of tangible and intangible assets

The Company assesses at each reporting date whether there is an indication that an asset may be impaired. If any indication exists, or when annual impairment testing for an asset is required, the Company estimates the asset's recoverable amount. An asset's recoverable amount is the higher of an asset's or cash-generating unit's (CGU) net selling price and its value in use. The recoverable amount is determined for an individual asset, unless the asset does not generate cash inflows that are largely independent of those from other assets or groups of assets. Where the carrying amount of an asset or CGU exceeds its recoverable amount, the asset is considered impaired and is written down to its recoverable amount.

Impairment losses of continuing operations, including impairment on inventories, are recognized in the statement of profit and loss, except for previously revalued tangible fixed assets, where the revaluation was taken to revaluation reserve. In this case, the impairment is also recognized in the revaluation reserve up to the amount of any previous revaluation.

After impairment, depreciation is provided on the revised carrying amount of the asset over its remaining useful life.

An assessment is made at each reporting date as to whether there is any indication that previously recognized impairment losses may no longer exist or may have decreased. If such indication exists, the company estimates the asset's or cash-generating unit's recoverable amount. A previously recognized impairment loss is reversed only if there has been a change in the assumptions used to determine the asset's recoverable amount since the last impairment loss was recognized. The reversal is limited so that the carrying amount of the asset does not exceed its recoverable amount, nor exceed the carrying amount that would have been determined, net of depreciation, had no impairment loss been recognized for the asset in prior years. Such reversal is recognized in the statement of profit and loss unless the asset is carried at a revalued amount, in which case the reversal is treated as a revaluation increase.

i. Investments

Investments, which are readily realizable and intended to be held for not more than one year from the date on which such investments are made, are classified as current investments. All other investments are classified as long-term investments.

On initial recognition, all investments are measured at cost. The cost comprises purchase price and directly attributable acquisition charges such as brokerage, fees and duties. If an investment is acquired, or partly acquired, by the issue of shares or other securities, the acquisition cost is the fair value of the securities issued.

Current investments are carried in the financial statements at lower of cost and fair value determined on an individual investment basis. Long-term investments are carried at cost. However, provision for diminution in value is made to recognize a decline other than temporary in the value of the investments.

On disposal of an investment, the difference between its carrying amount and net disposal proceeds is charged or credited to the statement of profit and loss.

j. Inventories

Inventories are valued as follows:

Raw materials and components, Stores and spares (including packing materials)	At Cost and Net Realizable Value, whichever is lower. However, materials and other items held for use in the production of inventories are not written down below cost if the finished products in which they will be incorporated are expected to be sold at or above cost.  Cost is determined on moving weighted average basis. Cost of raw materials and components lying in bonded warehouse includes custom duty accounted for on accrual basis.
Finished goods & Traded goods, Work-in-progress and Moulds, tools and dies in process	At Cost and Net Realizable Value, whichever is lower. Cost of Finished goods and Work-in-progress (including moulds, tools and dies in process) includes direct materials, labour and a proportion of manufacturing overheads based on normal operating capacity. Cost of traded goods includes cost of purchase and other costs incurred in bringing the inventories to their present location and condition. Cost is determined on moving weighted average basis. Cost of finished goods includes excise duty.
Scrap	At net realizable value.
Net realizable value is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business, less estimated costs of completion and to make the sale.

k. Revenue Recognition

Revenue is recognized to the extent that it is probable that the economic benefits will flow to the Company and the revenue can be reliably measured. The following specific recognition criteria must be met before revenue is recognised.

Sale of goods

Revenue from sale of Goods is recognised when the significant risks and rewards of ownership of the goods have passed to the buyer usually on delivery of Goods to the customer. The Company collects sales taxes and value added taxes (VAT) on behalf of the government and, therefore, these are not economic benefits flowing to the Company. Hence, they are excluded from revenue. Excise duty deducted from revenue (gross) is the amount that is included in the revenue (gross) and not the entire amount of liability arising during the year.

Sale of services

Revenues from service contracts are recognized as and when services are rendered. The Company collects service tax on behalf of the government and, therefore, it is not an economic benefit flowing to the Company. Hence, it is excluded from revenue.

Interest

Interest income is recognized on a time proportion basis taking into account the amount outstanding and the applicable interest rate. Interest income is included under the head "other income" in the statement of profit and loss.

Dividends

Dividend income is recognized when the Company's right to receive dividend is established by the reporting date.

l. Foreign Currency Translation

Foreign currency transactions

i. Initial Recognition

Foreign currency transactions are recorded in the reporting currency, by applying to the foreign currency amount the exchange rate between the reporting currency and the foreign currency at the date of the transaction.

ii. Conversion

Foreign currency monetary items are reported using the closing rate. Non-monetary items which are carried in terms of historical cost denominated in a foreign currency are reported using the exchange rate at the date of the transaction.

iii. Exchange Differences

Exchange differences arising on the settlement of monetary items or on reinstatement of monetary items at rates different from those at which they were initially recorded during the year, or reported in previous financial statements, are recognised as income or as expenses .

iv. Forward exchange contracts not intended for trading or speculation purposes

The premium or discount arising at the inception of forward exchange contracts is amortised as expense or income over the life of the contract. Exchange differences on such contracts are recognized in the statement of profit and loss in the year in which the exchange rates change. Any profit or loss arising on cancellation or renewal of forward exchange contract is recognized as income or as expense for the period.

m. Retirement and other Employee Benefits

i. Retirement benefit in the form of provident fund is a defined contribution scheme. The contributions to the provident fund are charged to the statement of profit and loss for the year when the contributions are due. The Company has no obligation, other than the contribution payable to the provident fund.

ii. The Company operates defined benefit plan for its employees i.e. gratuity. The costs of providing benefits under the plan are determined and recognised on the basis of actuarial valuation at each year-end. Actuarial valuation is carried out for the plan using the projected unit credit method. The Company has a policy with Life Insurance Corporation of India (LIC) in the nature of funding arrangement for gratuity plan and the difference between the future gratuity liability and the fair value of the plan assets as at the end of the year is deposited with the LIC. Actuarial gains and losses for the defined benefit plan is recognized in full in the period in which they occur in the statement of profit and loss.

- iii. Accumulated leave, which is expected to be utilized within the next 12 months, is treated as short-term employee benefit. The Company measures the expected cost of such absences as the additional amount that it expects to pay as a result of the unused entitlement that has accumulated at the reporting date.
- iv. The Company treats accumulated leave expected to be carried forward beyond twelve months, as long-term employee benefit for measurement purposes. Such long-term compensated absences are provided for based on the actuarial valuation using the projected unit credit method at the year-end. Actuarial gains/losses are immediately taken to the statement of profit and loss and are not deferred.
- v. Retirement benefit in the form of “Lumax Industries Limited Employees Superannuation Scheme” administered by the trustees is a defined contribution scheme. The contribution for the scheme is charged to the statement of profit and loss for the year when the contributions are due. The Company has no obligation, other than the contribution payable to the scheme.

n. Income Taxes

Tax expense comprises current and deferred tax. Current income-tax is measured at the amount expected to be paid to the tax authorities in accordance with the Income-tax Act, 1961 enacted in India and tax laws prevailing in the respective tax jurisdictions where the Company operates. The tax rates and tax laws used to compute the amount are those that are enacted or substantively enacted, at the reporting date. Current income tax relating to items recognized directly in equity is recognized in equity and not in the statement of profit and loss.

Deferred income taxes reflect the impact of timing differences between taxable income and accounting income originating during the current year and reversal of timing differences for the earlier years. Deferred tax is measured using the tax rates and the tax laws enacted or substantively enacted at the reporting date. Deferred income tax relating to items recognized directly in equity is recognized in equity and not in the statement of profit and loss.

Deferred tax liabilities are recognized for all taxable timing differences. Deferred tax assets are recognized for deductible timing differences only to the extent that there is reasonable certainty that sufficient future taxable income will be available against which such deferred tax assets can be realized. In situations where the Company has unabsorbed depreciation or carry forward tax losses, all deferred tax assets are recognized only if there is virtual certainty supported by convincing evidence that they can be realized against future taxable profits.

In the situations where the Company is entitled to a tax holiday under the Income-tax Act, 1961 enacted in India or tax laws prevailing in the respective tax jurisdictions where it operates, no deferred tax (asset or liability) is recognized in respect of timing differences which reverse during the tax holiday period, to the extent the Company's gross total income is subject to the deduction during the tax holiday period. Deferred tax in respect of timing differences which reverse after the tax holiday period is recognized in the year in which the timing differences originate. However, the Company restricts recognition of deferred tax assets to the extent that it has become reasonably certain or virtually certain, as the case may be, that sufficient future taxable income will be available against which such deferred tax assets can be realized. For recognition of deferred taxes, the timing differences which originate first are considered to reverse first.

At each reporting date, the Company re-assesses unrecognized deferred tax assets. It recognizes unrecognized deferred tax asset to the extent that it has become reasonably certain or virtually certain, as the case may be, that sufficient future taxable income will be available against which such deferred tax assets can be realized.

The carrying amount of deferred tax assets are reviewed at each reporting date. The Company writes-down the carrying amount of deferred tax asset to the extent that it is no longer reasonably certain or virtually certain, as the case may be, that sufficient future taxable income will be available against which deferred tax asset can be realized. Any such write-down is reversed to the extent that it becomes reasonably certain or virtually certain, as the case may be, that sufficient future taxable income will be available.

Deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities are offset, if a legally enforceable right exists to set-off current tax assets against current tax liabilities and the deferred tax assets and deferred taxes relate to the same taxable entity and the same taxation authority.

Minimum alternate tax (MAT) paid in a year is charged to the statement of profit and loss as current tax. The Company recognizes MAT credit available as an asset only to the extent that there is convincing evidence that the Company will pay normal income tax during the specified period, i.e., the period for which MAT credit is allowed to be carried forward. In the year in which the Company recognizes MAT credit as an asset in accordance with the Guidance Note on Accounting for Credit Available in respect of Minimum Alternative Tax under the Income-tax Act, 1961, the said asset is created by way of credit to the statement of profit and loss and shown as “MAT Credit Entitlement.” The Company reviews the “MAT credit entitlement” asset at each reporting date and writes down the asset to the extent the Company does not have convincing evidence that it will pay normal tax during the specified period.

o. Segment Reporting Policies

Business Segment

The Company is engaged in the business of manufacture of various types of Automotive Lighting Equipment. The entire operations are governed by the same set of risks and return hence the entire operations represent a single primary segment.

Geographical Segment

The analysis of geographical segments is based on the geographical location of the customers i.e. customers located within India and customers located outside India.

p. Earnings per share

Basic earnings per share are calculated by dividing the net profit or loss for the period attributable to equity shareholders by the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the period.

For the purpose of calculating diluted earnings per equity share, the net profit or loss for the period attributable to equity shareholders and the weighted average number of shares outstanding during the period are adjusted for the effects of all dilutive potential equity shares.

q. Provisions

A provision is recognised when an enterprise has a present obligation as a result of past event and it is probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation, in respect of which a reliable estimate can be made. Provisions are not discounted to its present value and are determined based on best management estimate required to settle the obligation at the balance sheet date. These are reviewed at each balance sheet date and adjusted to reflect the current best management estimates.

Warranty provisions

Provisions for warranty-related costs are recognized when the product is sold or service provided. Provision is based on historical experience. The estimate of such warranty-related costs is revised annually.

r. Contingent liabilities

A contingent liability is a possible obligation that arises from past events whose existence will be confirmed by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more uncertain future events beyond the control of the Company or a present obligation that is not recognized because it is not probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation. A contingent liability also arises in extremely rare cases where there is a liability that cannot be recognized because it cannot be measured reliably. The Company does not recognize a contingent liability but discloses its existence in the financial statements.

s. Cash and Cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents in the cash flow statement comprise cash at bank and in hand and short- term investments with an original maturity of three months or less.

t. Derivative instruments

In accordance with the ICAI announcement, derivative contracts, other than foreign currency forward contracts covered under AS 11, are marked to market on a portfolio basis, and the net loss, if any, after considering the offsetting effect of gain on the underlying hedged item, is charged to the statement of profit and loss. Net gain, if any, after considering the offsetting effect of loss on the underlying hedged item, is ignored.

u. Measurement of EBITDA

As permitted by the Guidance Note on the Revised Schedule VI to the Companies Act, 1956, the Company has elected to present earnings before interest, tax, depreciation and amortization (EBITDA) as a separate line item on the face of the statement of profit and loss. The Company measures EBITDA on the basis of profit from continuing operations. In its measurement, the Company does not include depreciation and amortization expense, finance costs and tax expense.
